Private Group Touring Quote

Touring is generally based on four Yarra Valley standard cellar door tastings with a 1 course lunch.

Our service will include a private vehicle and driver assigned for sole use for your group.

We package cellar door tastings and lunch and these are specified on your quote - anything not specified is additional cost. Our guides provide a full commentary, wine appreciation tutorial and full guiding service. We have a selection of great wineries who offer a wonderful selection of wine as well as a unique setting and style. Our groups department will be happy to offer suggestions to construct the itinerary to best suite each group or if your group have particular wineries in mind, then please let the team know and they will endeavor to include these in your quote and suggested touring package. Some venues may incur additional charges and all touring is subject to availability.
